Leadership Alums in Action!

On April 29, CREW Leadership alums from the past five classes gathered at Toulouse on Peachtree Street for a tasting of summer wines. Sommelier Michael Gallant led the group through a tasting of several flights of wine that were selected in anticipation of Atlanta's upcoming hot and humid summer. Fifteen Alums attended, with the Class of 2006 having the highest number of attendees. It was a great opportunity for CREW Leadership graduates to reconnect with each other and share in each other's successes over a glass of wine.

of felony and also tries all civil actions regardless of the amount in controversy.

Edlein is a litigation partner in Holland & Knight's Atlanta office, where she is co-chair of the national Real Estate Litigation Team. She also sits on the board of directors of the Holland & Knight Charitable Foundation. In addition, Edlein was one of five attorneys selected to participate in Holland & Knight's 2006 "Rising Stars" program, a firm-wide leadership and management program for women. She also serves as the Atlanta coordinator for the Women's Initiative program, which is part of the firm's commitment to diversity.

Susan has been a CREW member since 2004, graduated with the CREW Leadership class of 2006 and is currently the Vice Chair of Alumni Events under Leadership Committee. Congratulations to Susan on her accomplishments!

AN AMERICAN BISTRO
TOULOUSE

One of the most noted successes involved Georgia Governor Sonny Perdue appointing CREW's own Susan Eichler Edlein to the State Court of Fulton County. The judicial vacancy was created by the appointment of the Honorable Henry M. Newkirk to the Superior Court of the Atlanta Judicial Circuit. The State Court of Fulton County operates under the laws of the State of Georgia. The court hears all criminal cases below the grade
