UCREW in The ATL

On a recent rainy Thursday afternoon in October at the midtown offices of Troutman Sanders, 22 members of CREW Atlanta hosted its inaugural UCREW program. The event was designed to expose university-level women to the range of career options available to them within commercial real estate, along with the opportunity to hear and engage many of the local leaders in the industry.

Despite the clouds outside, inside our spirits were bright. We spent the afternoon with a highly engaging and diverse group of 25 young women and one very brave young man. Several area colleges and universities were represented including Georgia State, Emory, Georgia Tech and West Georgia. (Click here to read more)
