“Do not follow where the path may lead.
Go instead where there is no path and leave a trail.”
—Muriel Strode

Atlanta chapter's Leadership Committee members

I love this quote, especially now. It's times like these when great leadership is required—when history is not necessarily our teacher and the future is unclear. Today, more than ever, we need people of vision and influence whose moral and ethical compasses are without question.

And, all else being equal, I'd just as soon have a woman leading the way. I mean, why not? Talk about going where there is no path—we're experts at that! (Click here to read more)
