CREW Message from the President

Dear CREW Members and Supporters:

Instead of celebrating the beginning of 2010, many of us will find ourselves raising a glass to the end of 2009. Indeed, it has been a challenging year, economically speaking. However, it is important to celebrate our successes along the way and to highlight all that we have accomplished.

In July 2009, CREW Atlanta recast its annual budget to cut expenses more than 30% for the balance of the year. However, CREW Atlanta has continued to produce excellent programming, increased its philanthropic commitment, and inspired, sustained and further developed its members both professionally and personally. And despite this financial "hurdle", CREW Atlanta committees have managed to meet a substantial number of their goals set for 2009, even on a reduced budget. (Click to read more)
