Upcoming 2010 Slate of Programs

*May Breakfast Program: Georgia's Fortune 500
Companies—Real Estate Decisions 2010*

CREW Atlanta's Programs Committee is busy finalizing an interesting and informative slate of programs for the remainder of 2010. After taking a break in July and August, monthly programs will resume beginning in September and continue to the end of the year. We wanted to share our plans with you.

Our September program will have an international focus and will cover topics related to the European Union's financial woes, including the Greek economic crisis, and how the weakening Euro is impacting not only European countries but also investment in Atlanta. Our economy is becoming increasingly global and events occurring in other... (Click to read more)
