Taking the Next Step toward Unified Regional Transportation in Georgia

Keeping a close eye on the progress of the new Transportation legislation (House Bill 277), CREW's Public Policy Initiatives Committee is excited to share its most recent developments with you.

Following Governor Purdue's approval on June 2nd, the new Transportation Funding Bill will pave the way for a unified regional transportation system in Georgia. While this concept has been much talked about for over a decade, its method of execution has been less transparent. Formed in 2006, The Regional Transit Committee's (RTC) assembly of regional leaders has been working to establish a governance structure for the planning, funding, construction, operation and maintenance of a truly integrated regional... (Click to read more)

e-Mentoring

CREW Atlanta is still looking for protégés for the upcoming e-Mentoring program (August through May 2011). Protégés are paired with experienced CREW members to discover their greatest assets, capture what they want to do and be, prepare a plan to make it happen and expand their opportunities for ongoing growth and development. Young women in their senior year or graduate studies in a real estate program, or in their first few years of commercial real estate are encouraged to apply. Applications due July 2. Click for more info
